Dear All,

I'm going to be filing a motion for an extension, as Judge Jordan allowed, till November 27th. That's all the time I'll be asking for barring some extreme calamity. I was thinking of only 7 days, but notice that 7 days after the 15th is November 22nd; the day before Thanksgiving. As your reply would be due 14 days later, of which 4 days would be 'long weekend' days, I hardly think this would be fair to any of you, and for another reason which will be explained below. So how would a deadline of November 27th be? That's a Monday and will give you your entire 14 days with which to respond.

If my reasoning is objectionable to any of you, please let me know. I'm amenable to working this out in whatever way necessary so that everyone is afforded an equal opportunity as this is a serious situation for yourselves and/or your clients depending on the ultimate success of my Appeal.

For what it's worth: My health is greatly improved after the time off, and I'm now in a mental state able to continue without break for the foreseeable future. But it's been a struggle since I've been served with 24 documents from the previously named 'associates' of some of you in the Arizona case, and, coincidentally, just a few days prior to my November 15th deadline they took steps to have me arrested. Those actions culminated with the local police visiting me, and my having to defend myself from yet more perjurious allegations, which necessitates my drafting a filing (albeit a short filing which will only take me a day or two at most) to deal with these new criminal allegations against me.

If everyone would please respond at your earliest convenience I would appreciate it.

Regards,
